Arts Alive Closing Ceremony
Dorking Halls
Saturday 11 November 6pm - 9pm

Mole Valley Arts Alive Festival will be hosting a Closing Ceremony for the first time in the Festival’s history. The event will showcase the talent and diversity Arts Alive and Mole Valley has to offer. There will be performances from the Creative Celebration acts, Arts Alive event holders and local community groups. Tickets to the event will be £5 and can be purchased from Dorking Halls.

Unbelievably this is Arts Alive’s 23rd birthday! We’re extremely proud to continue to support it, and watch it grow and grow each year. Arts Alive is a wonderful showcase for Mole Valley’s huge amount of artistic talent - much of it previously undiscovered. With such a varied line-up of events, activities and performances, there really is something for everyone. I’m thrilled that this year’s festival is geared towards promoting community wellbeing, one of our top priorities. We are very much behind the festival’s ethos of bringing all members of the community together to experience the arts. There were 21,000 festivalgoers last year - let’s top this! I wish everyone involved the best.

Welcome to 2017 Arts Alive.

Our dedicated Committee have been working hard to bring you an interesting, fun and extensive programme worthy of the status that Arts Alive now enjoys in the South East of England.

This year, along with our famous Pumpkin Show, we have Music, Exhibitions, Drama, Workshops and Films. You can participate, sing, listen, learn and be entertained — and there’s something for all the family. Last year we had audiences of over 22,000 people at all the events and the Festival is eagerly awaited by both participants and audiences. Our success has enabled us not only to spill out from the month of October with events as early as September and as late as December. We begin with the now annual family festival, Pippfest, in September and in December we have Head2Head Theatre’s multi-sensory pantomime Aladdin.

We hope you like our slightly revamped brochure with its new icons (thank you Giulia Mauri) making it easier to find exactly what genres you are looking for. We are also delighted with the eye-catching cover picture by the talented 12 year old Ellie Hammett.

Following on the success of last year’s Writing Competition there is another this year aimed at Year 10 and 11, writing on My Brilliant Career. We are so looking forward to these entries and judging them for Bartons Bookshop’s generous prizes.

Thank you Gatwick Airport for your welcome sponsorship, matching the amount which we receive from Mole Valley District Council — along with the expertise of their Communities, Communications and Marketing Teams. And, thank you to our Surrey County Councillors, Helyn Clack and Tim Hall [and, hopefully, Stephen Cooksey and Clare Curran] for your financial help.

None of this could be done without our volunteer, hardworking Committee — some of whom, this year, are also putting together our very first Finale on 11th November. Thank you all.

Looking forward to meeting you all at our Launch (courtesy of Yehudi Menuhin School), our Street Celebrations, the events themselves and the Finale. Here’s to another magnificent Festival.

Mary Huggins, Festival Chairman

Cover design competition winner 2017 - Ellie Hammett

Ellie Hammett, 12 years old, who studies at The Ashcombe School in Dorking, won the competition this year, beating competition from both children and adults across the district with her imaginative design.

“I wanted to do something abstract and colourful, so I used separate lines to cut off each section, making it modern and geometric. I looked around online using different references for the instruments, shoes and masks. I tried to use a broad colour scheme to make the design eye-catching and interesting.”

For the first time this year - we have introduced a set of Genre Icons; designed by former committee secretary, Giulia Mauri.

We hope these icons help you navigate your way around the Arts events in this 2017 guide.

SHERREE enjoys a position at the forefront of British art, and has done so for many years. She has been variously described as ‘the face of modern British impressionism’, ‘artist to the stars’, (Daily Express) and ‘the finest figurative artist we have here in the UK’ (Art of England). Technically brilliant, stylistically virtuosic and endlessly vigilant, she creates masterly evocations of some of the most beautiful elements of British life, from the elegance of the social whirl to the innocence of the children’s seaside outing.

Her exquisite paintings have been exhibited at such prestigious venues as the Tate Gallery, the Barbican, the Royal Society of British Artists, the Royal Institute of Oil Painters, the Laing Landscape Exhibition, the Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolours, the Royal Watercolour Society, the Hesketh Hubbard Art Society, the New English Art Club, the National Society of Painters, the United Society of Painters and the Pastel Society. Sherree’s work is also in the Lord’s Museum and is held in many private collections all over the world.

Sherree’s unquestionable virtuosity has made her a favourite with many celebrity collectors including members of the British Royal Family and former Prime Minister Sir John Major. Many famous names in the world of show-business have sat for her including Joanna Lumley, John Sessions and Sir Michael Parkinson. She was also commissioned to paint portraits of Jonny Wilkinson and Martin Johnson for a pair of commemorative Limited Editions (signed by both artist and player). Her most recent portrait featured Sebastian Coe (Lord Coe).

Sherree is both the critic’s choice and the people’s choice, winning many high profile awards, and she has been officially voted the UK’s leading Modern Impressionist. A familiar face on our televisions she has appeared in programmes as varied as ‘To the Manor Born’ and ‘This Morning’; this autumn she was seen painting a £75,000 commission of a society bride in Channel 4’s documentary, ‘How the Rich Get Hitched’, and the reaction of the bride put all the other extraordinary elements of her wedding in the shade! When Champagne Bollinger commissioned Sherree to create a painting to illustrate a quintessential moment of the summer season, they made an inspired choice.

This year's competition is for young people. If you are a student in Year 11 or 12 at a Mole Valley school (state or private) then this is for YOU. The piece you write should be called 'My Brilliant Career' and must be no more than 800 words long. And it MUST be by you, without help from anybody else.

What's it about? You may imagine for writing this, that in some years' time you have worked your way to achieving your ideal career, and have perhaps become quite famous - maybe in music or writing or medicine or even politics - whatever is your chosen ambition in life. Using your imagination, tell your readers how you got there and what it's like to be so well known.

The prizes are given by Bartons Bookshop in Leatherhead. The first prize is £50 of book vouchers and the second prize is £25 of vouchers. Prizes will be presented by the proprietor of the bookshop in early November - time and place to be arranged, but if you win we'll contact you!

This is for Year 11 – 12 students only!

All entries must be received by

Monday 23rd October 2017

How do you enter?

Simple. We'd suggest that you think it over, put some notes together and then write your piece - check the number of words - rewrite perhaps? Then complete our application form which can be found on our website: arts-alive.co.uk and copy and paste your story there.

Mole Valley District Council’s Deepdene Trail Project invites artists to submit watercolour paintings based on or inspired by the Deepdene Trail situated within the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Inspired by the beautiful watercolours created in 1825 by William Bartlett recording Thomas Hope’s grand Deepdene estate in Dorking, Surrey, we are looking for contemporary responses in watercolour that represent Surrey’s countryside today. This competition is supported by Surrey Arts and the Arts Alive festival.

Prizes include a cash prize of £250 for the overall winner and an exhibition for the top entries at a local Dorking venue in 2018.

A £5 fee will be charged per entry.

Entries will be accepted from 20th October, 9am.

Deadline is 15th December, 5pm.

The Deepdene estate has been recently brought back to life and reconnected by the Deepdene Trail project, supported by the Heritage Lottery Funds.

For entry forms and details on how to submit your entry and further information please visit:

Royal Opera Live: La Bohème

Dorking Halls, Reigate Road, Dorking RH4 1SG

When Rodolfo, a penniless poet, meets Mimi, a seamstress, they fall instantly in love. But their happiness is threatened when Rodolfo learns that Mimi is gravely ill. Acclaimed director Richard Jones (Boris Godunov, Il trittico) directs a new production of Puccini’s La bohème. Irresistible in its witty, passionate blend of comedy and tragedy, the opera focusses on the lives of a group of young artists as they eke out an existence on the bohemian fringes of Paris, the capital of the 19th century. Jones brings his characteristically acute insight to this muchloved classic, visualized in Stewart Laing’s spectacular, stylized 1850s setting. Puccini’s romantic depiction of bohemian Paris, with memorable music and a love story drawn from everyday life, has captivated audiences around the world, making La bohème one of the best-loved of all operas. It was first performed in Covent Garden in 1897 and has had more than five hundred performances there since. Sung in Italian with English Subtitles.

Move Over Mrs Markham

Nomad Theatre,
Bishopsmead Parade,
East Horsley KT24 6RT

This wonderful farce is set in a top floor London flat, belonging to Philip and Joanna Markham. The flat has been renovated, and so has been largely empty. Philip is a publisher of children’s books, and he shares an office with his partner, Henry Lodge, on the ground floor. Philip agrees to let Henry borrow his apartment for the evening to “entertain” his latest girlfriend. At the same time, Joanna Markham is persuaded by Linda Lodge to let her borrow the apartment, so she can entertain her lover. What nobody knows is that the interior designer who had been decorating the apartment for the past three months has decided that this was the night he and the au pair girl would try out the new round bed! When all three sets of people converge on the apartment, expecting to find it empty, chaos and confusion ensue.

Caius Martius Coriolanus is a fearless soldier but a reluctant leader. His ambitious mother attempts to carve him a path to political power, but he struggles to change his nature and do what is required to achieve greatness. In this new city state struggling to find its feet, where the gap between rich and poor is widening every day, Coriolanus must decide who he really is and where his allegiances lie. Rome Season Director, Angus Jackson, completes the Royal Shakespeare Company’s collection of Shakespeare’s Roman plays with a visceral production which sees Sope Dirisu (One Night in Miami, Donmar Warehouse, 2016) take on the title role.

Eve’s Song

Leatherhead Methodist Church, Church Road, Leatherhead KT22 8AY

The music of women composers contains a wealth of talent and a panoply of beautiful compositions. Neglected, even suppressed in their own time, their present day rediscovery presents us with wonderful musical delights and insights. Our programme gives us all, performers and audience alike, a chance to enjoy this rich world of musical gems.

Some of the composers are already known, but not usually for their compositions. Clara Schumann was better known as a concert pianist and the wife of Robert. Alma Mahler, wife of Gustav, was initially forbidden to compose by him. Fanny Mendelssohn was required to publish her songs under her brother Felix’s name. Amy Beach was a child prodigy pianist who had to forego her career when she married. Whatever the mistakes of the past, we can now ensure that the gifts of these wonderful composers will continue to be celebrated and enjoyed.

Tea and cakes will be served in the interval.

Sense and Sensibility by Jane Austen

Green Room Theatre, Rear of Dorking Halls, Reigate Road, Dorking RH4 1SG

Elinor and Marianne Dashwood are left penniless after their wealthy half-brother cheats them of their fortune. They are forced to leave the comforts of Norland Park and relocate to a cold Devonshire cottage. When a devilishly handsome stranger arrives at Barton Cottage with the rain-drenched Marianne in his arms, the Dashwood girls are convinced that their fortunes are changed forever. Whilst the sensible Elinor pines for quiet Edward Ferrars, impulsive Marianne loses herself in the idea of her hero on horseback, and for a girl who feasts on poetry and music, what else is there to do in Devon but dream of rescue? In Austen’s dearly-loved classic, we follow the fortunes of the two Dashwood sisters as they chase their dreams from Devonshire to London and back.

Bolshoi Ballet Live: La Cosaire

Dorking Halls, Reigate Road, Dorking RH4 1SG

Amidst a bustling market, the pirate Conrad falls in love at first sight with the beautiful Medora, the ward of the slave merchant Lankedem’s bazaar. Conrad kidnaps Medora when Lannedem decides to sell her to the Pasha. Inspired by Lord Byron’s epic poem and reworked by Alexei Ratmansky from Petipa’s exotic 19th century classic, this miracle of the repertoire is one of the Bolshoi’s most lavish productions. Complete with a magnificent awe-inspiring shipwreck and dramatic scenery, this grand romance allows enough dancing for nearly the entire company and made especially for those who seek miracles in theatre.

Royal Ballet Live: Alice’s Adventures In Wonderland
Dorking Halls, Reigate Road, Dorking RH4 1SG

At a garden party on a sunny afternoon, Alice is surprised to see her parents’ friend Lewis Carroll transform into a white rabbit. When she follows him down a rabbit hole events become curiouser and curiouser. As Alice journeys through Wonderland, she encounters countless strange creatures. She’s swept off her feet by the charming Knave of Hearts, who’s on the run for stealing the tarts. Confusion piles upon confusion. Then Alice wakes with a start. Was it all a daydream?

Christopher Wheeldon’s Alice’s Adventures in Wonderland burst onto the stage in 2011 in an explosion of colour, stage magic and inventive, sophisticated choreography. Joby Talbott’s score combines contemporary soundworlds with sweeping melodies that gesture to ballet scores of the 19th century. Bob Crowley’s wildly imaginative, eye-popping designs draw on everything from puppetry to projections to make Wonderland wonderfully real. Alice encounters a cast of extraordinary and instantly recognizable characters, from the highly strung Queen of Hearts – who performs a hilarious send-up of The Sleeping Beauty’s famous Rose Adage – to a playingcard corps de ballet, a sinuous caterpillar and a tap-dancing Mad Hatter. But the ballet does not avoid the darker undercurrents of Lewis Carroll’s story: a nightmarish kitchen, an eerily disembodied Cheshire Cat and the unhinged tea party are all here in vivid detail. The delicious result shows The Royal Ballet at its best, bringing together world-class dance with enchanting family entertainment.
